FREDERICK GILES

Frederick Giles, son of William and Sarah Huskinson Giles, was born March 3, 1835, in Sterley, Nottinghamshire, England. He was a convert to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, being baptized at Gringley when about 18 years of age.

In 1853 he left Liverpool, England, for America, arriving at New Orleans, La., after 53 days on the ocean. He resided for a time near Quincy, Illinois, at Burlington, Iowa, and for over a year at Council Bluffs, Iowa. In the spring of 1856 he joined a company of about "forty or fifty" wagons and crossed the plains and mountains, arriving in Salt Lake City after a journey of seven weeks.

He moved soon afterward to Provo, where Mary Ann Moulton on January 1, 1857, was his wife. Their son, Frederick W. Giles, was born in the fall of 1860.

Frederick W. Giles moved to Salt Lake City in the fall of 1860. He was the name then of a son, John T., who was born in 1864. His wife, Sarah (who was born in 1869), died in 1869.

came to Heber with her parents when 22 years of age, and later married Frederick Giles, March 8, 1869, in the old Endowment House in Salt Lake City, Utah.

To Maria and Frederick were born six children: Mary Ann, Sylena, Lorenzo, George, Elizabeth, and Heber. During her early married life, Maria had many of the pioneer hardships to contend with, such as living in a log cabin with a dirt roof. This dirt roof presented quite a problem when it rained, and buckets had to be placed to catch the rain. Maria also helped rear two children by her husband's first marriage.

Maria Sharp died July 4, 1890. It was always the custom in Heber to have a grand celebration on the Fourth of July, but out of respect to Maria Sharp, the entire celebration was cancelled.
